Bone Small Bowl

Hand-Cast Matt Brass

Designed as a sculptural statement for the table top, the Bone Bowl is cast in solid brass with a refined matt finish. Each piece is formed into an intricate, curved lattice form that bears a distinctive bone-like quality. Utilising traditional craft techniques with a handmade pattern, its open design works as an ideal fruit bowl or an unusual standalone decorative object. Whether used for display or as a functional centrepiece, this bowl brings a sophisticated balance of organic form and artisanal weight to your home.
